Congregation L'Dor V'Dor welcomes

Joanna Hershon

Thursday, October 8 at 12:00 pm

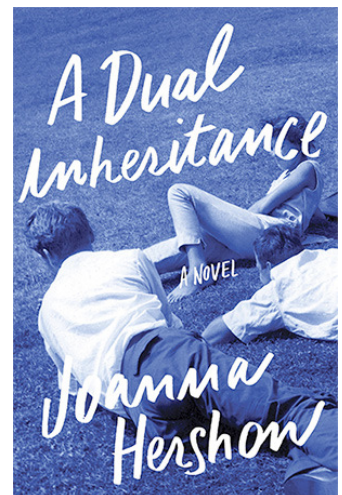

Please join us as Ms. Hershon speaks about her novel: A Dual Inheritance. Cambridge, Massachusetts 1963: Two students with different upbringings meet one autumn evening during their senior year at Harvard and form an intense friendship, but it ends abruptly several years later, leaving the men to question passion, betrayal, class and friendship.

Lunch will be provided.

Please RSVP by October 6 to: office@ldorvdor.org

This event is presented by our Enrichment Committee.

Joanna Hershon is the author of four novels: Swimming, The Outside of August, The German Bride and A Dual Inheritance (May, 2013, Ballantine). Her writing has appeared in (among other places) The New York Times, One Story, The Virginia Quarterly Review, the literary anthologies Brooklyn Was Mine and Freud's Blind Spot, and was shortlisted for the 2007 O. Henry Prize Stories. She's an adjunct assistant professor in the Creative Writing department at Columbia University and lives in Brooklyn with her husband, painter Derek Buckner, and their three children.
