Congregation L'Dor V'Dor

*Rabbi Steven Heneson Moskowitz
Talya Smilowitz, Cantorial Soloist
Kim Bertash, Education Director/Office Manager
Lisa Weiner, President*

*When it's over, I want to say all my life
I was a bride married to amazement.
I was the bridegroom, taking the world into my arms.*

*When it's over, I don't want to wonder if I have made of my life something particular, and real.
I don't want to find myself sighing and frightened,
or full of argument.*

I don't want to end up simply having visited this world.

Mary Oliver

Lessons From Our Lives

We remember...

Walter Belous

Walter was guided by curiosity and strength. He could be exacting and even tough on himself. He never veered from the values he taught. Walter got to know people and came to take interest in their stories. In fact, part of his great love of work was the people he met at the office or in his travels. He had this likeability factor that was off the charts and could kibitz like no other. He was so very engaging and always smiling. Walter was likeable and loving. He never said “No” to dessert, a glass of wine, or dancing, most especially with a grandchild.

Our holy congregation was enriched by the life of Walter Belous.

May the memory of Walter Belous
serve as a blessing.

Lessons From Our Lives

We remember...

Sean Byrne

If Sean was in, he was all in. He loved his faith, his family, his friends, and his life with all his heart. Sean was charismatic and loving, loyal and hard-working. There were times when he led family and friends through tragedy by his examples of faith and strength. When he was forced to share hard truths it always came from a place of love and support. He treated everyone with kindness and respect no matter who they were or how they treated him. His life and example embodied one of his favorite quotes "Life does not get better by chance; it gets better by choice."

Our holy congregation was enriched by the life of Sean Byrne.

May the memory of Sean Byrne
serve as a blessing.

Lessons From Our Lives

We remember...

Lawrence Gladstone

Larry did not walk at a pace that was determined by others or the outside world. He was exceedingly bright, most especially at math and science. Friends marveled at the fact that even though he appeared never to study, he always aced his tests. These friends look back and recall with great fondness the charismatic, fun loving Larry who they nicknamed "Happy Rock." And while this name was clearly a reformulation of "Glad-Stone" it was really more about that smiling persona of years past. Larry did not care what other people thought. He was quirky, in a good and loving way. There was the right way, the wrong way and the Larry way. Larry always advised his children, "Don't be a follower. Think differently."

Larry Gladstone.*

May the memory of Larry Gladstone
serve as a blessing.

כִּי־אֲתָה עִמָּדִי שְׁבִטָהּ וּמִשְׁעֲנֵתָהּ הִפָּה יִנְחַמְנִי:
תַּעֲרֹךְ לְפָנַי שִׁלְחַן נֹגֵד צִרְרֵי הַשָּׁנָה
בְּשֶׁמֶן רֹאשִׁי כוֹסֵי רוּיָהּ:
אֵךְ טוֹב וְחֹסֵד יִרְדְּפוּנִי כָּל־יְמֵי חַיִּי וְשִׁבְתִּי
בְּבֵית־יְהוָה לְאָרְךָ יָמִים:

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul;

He guideth me in straight paths for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou hast anointed my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
